Andrew Lovell BHSI	Andrew is a regular instructor at our Adult Horse Camps and holds monthly Confidence Building Clinics. Andrew has had experience of eventing horses to advanced level and competing in all the major disciplines including dressage, show jumping and showing ponies, hunters and working hunters. He has been training riders of all ages, levels and across all disciplines for many years, including Riding Club and Pony Club team training. He is well known for helping the nervous and novice rider/horse combinations on the flat but especially when working over fences.
Nikki Lumb BHSAI Int.SM	Nikki is a regular instructor at our Adult Horse Camps. Nikki is a freelance instructor with over 20 years' experience. She has been working with riders of all ages and is a regular pony club instructor, encouraging novice riders and combinations to progress and succeed. She has competed in the major disciplines of eventing, show jumping and now regularly rides in dressage and showing classes.
Matt Ryan Triple Olympic 3 Day Event Gold Medallist	Matt announced his retirement from competitive riding a few months ago - mainly due to several niggling injuries. He is now focusing on teaching, training his working pupils and clients and also media work. He has a well-known prefix of 'BONZA' for his event horses and businesses. Matt is Australian, but has lived in the UK since 1989 and is a triple Olympic Gold Medallist. Matt's more recent successes include 4th at Badminton 2007, 8th at Badminton 2008 and 1st Kreuth 2008.
Ben van Sommeren	Ben graduated in 1984 from the Dutch Equestrian Centre at Deurne, Netherlands after a four year course in riding, horsemanship and teaching equivalent to BHSI. He has worked in the USA for George Morris the world renowned chef d'equipe for the US Show Jumping Team and spent 3½ years riding for Michael Matz the three times American Olympic rider and winner of the Show Jumping World Cup. In 1990 Ben moved to England and started his own competition yard where he successfully produced horses and coached riders to advanced level in BE. Currently Ben has retired from competing to concentrate on his skills as a teacher.

Lucy McCarthy
(Wiegersma)
*International Event
Rider*

Having regularly featured amongst the top 5 riders in the FEI World Rankings, Lucy is the only rider to have won all three national titles, crowning her Junior and Young Rider Championship victories by becoming Senior British National Champion in 2006. Lucy can count Blenheim, Blair and Bramham amongst her three-day wins, and she narrowly missed out adding the Badminton title to her tally in 2008, when she finished second. Lucy's outstanding talent and professionalism has been recognised and supported by the World Class Performance programme. Lucy runs MGH Sport Horses, an equine training and trading business, with her husband Pdraig McCarthy. They specialise in Irish Sport Horses and strive to produce and sell high quality event horses to both amateur and professional clients.
